The purpose of this act being provided for in an act made 1713 this was repealed.

An Act to prevent the abuse of breaking open and Concealing publick & private Letters ~ Whereas the Trade and Commerce of this province is in great measure Confirmed to the Kingdom of England and the Inhabitants of this Province of Necessity are obliged to Lodge their Effects and wholly Correspond with the merchants in England by which means we have great dependance upon their advice in Trade and often protested bills of Exchange are remitted hither to the severall persons interested therein wh. are sometimes of Considerable Value and for want of due Care of such Letters in which the same are inclosed no sted post houses being appointed for the reception of them many times sundry evill minded persons finde occasion (clandestinely) to take such Letters out of the publick houses (where they are generally left) and break open and Conseale the same to the great Detriment of sundry of the Inhabitants merchants & Traders and many ill Designing who have drawn bills of Exchange not having any Bottom in England to answer the same well knowing and observing what merchant or merchants such bills are remitted do diligently watch the Returns of such bills from the merchants and guessing at some Letters to be the Courts of their protested Bills yet
